Rugby Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT)

September 2022 News

Welcome to the September's issue of our newsletter. It shows what some members of the team have been up to over the past few weeks. The team have continued to be out within the community battling some of the hottest days we have seen. If you need any help or advice, please get in touch with the team. Crime statistics can be found on Warwickshire Police website via link, <https://www.ourwatch.org.uk/crime-map>

Engaging with communities.

Commonwealth Games

Some members of the team were specially selected to be part of the Commonwealth Games such as the parade of the Commonwealth Torch as it passed through parts of Rugby and some of the team made sandwiches for police officers who were policing the games .

Summer Patrols

Rugby have been working alongside Warwickshire Fire and Rescue in patrolling the borough throughout the summer holidays. They have been actively visiting youngsters around play areas and talked about keeping safe whilst enjoying a well-deserved break from schools. This has been greatly appreciated by the children and were surprised that it was not all about being told off when spoken to by officers. The patrols have helped break down barriers between youngsters and the police which in effect has produced less calls to police than anticipated for anti-social behaviour.

Summer Fete's

Long Lawford's very own PCSO Bowers was at hand during their event in the playing area. He engaged with the youngsters and chatted to members of the community. Lee is pictured below with councillors Derek Poole, Simon Ward and Heather Timms. PC Elcock and PCSO Goode visited Whitehall wreck family day which was well attended and a great chance for the team to engage and speak with the community.

Neighbour disputes.

We would all like to live in peace with our neighbours, but unfortunately that is sometimes not how things work out. Here's what you can do if you are having problems. Unless a crime has been committed or someone is in immediate danger, the police are unlikely to intervene in neighbour disputes. However, we'll put you in touch with the groups and organisations who can help.

Examples:

I'm having a dispute with a neighbour about our property boundaries.

If you can't find an amicable solution with your neighbour, we suggest seeking the advice of a solicitor to resolve this. You could also contact your bank, building society, or whoever holds your deeds, to confirm the boundaries.

The following resources may also be of use:

- The Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) www.rics.org
- The Land Registry www.gov.uk

I'm having a dispute with a neighbour about their CCTV camera pointing at my property

Many people are installing closed circuit television (CCTV) as a home security measure as it has proved to be an effective tool in fighting crime. Cameras used for limited household purposes are not subject to the Data Protection Act 1998.

However, if the footage covers areas beyond this, such as neighbouring streets or other properties, problems may arise. There could be issues regarding privacy and harassment if you are being recorded in your home.

In the first instance, speak to your neighbour to see if it's possible to reposition the camera so that it does not point at your property. If this is not successful, and you want to take further action, we recommend seeking legal advice from a solicitor.

- To find a local independent solicitor visit The Law Society web site www.lawsociety.org.uk

My neighbour plays music to an excessive level.

A noise complaint can be made to your local council online.

If you live in a rented property or local housing, then please contact your landlord or the housing association who will be able to provide relevant support and guidance. Further advice on what to do to resolve a neighbour dispute can be obtained from the Gov.UK website www.gov.uk This independent website also offers advice www.problemneighbours.co.uk If you live in a rented property or local housing, then please contact your landlord or the housing association who will be able to provide relevant support and guidance.
